There are plenty of resorts linked with the Buena Viva Exeter group. They have tie-ups with almost every place you can manage to go on a vacation too.

If you are thinking Europe, then the United Kingdom would be one of the first places you could go to. In th UK, you can visit Kent, Scotland and other such places.

And provided you are going all the way, you better not come back without have a good nice look for atleast a fort night in Spain, Portugal, Cyprus, Belgium and even Austria for that matter.

In Spain you could stay at the Vera beach club or even at Crown Resorts.
